

This week, base students were very busy. We composed our own songs using our favourite toys as inspiration and we played some tricky rhythms on the djembe drums.

Year 5 students have been learning about African music. This week we focused on West Africa and learned about how mnemonics help players to remember what to play.

