

Books you can't get out of your head!

A reminder for children learning at home, please design and make something to wear on your head using the online tutorials in the 'Dressing up For World Book Day' folder in Google Classroom and decorate it to reflect your favourite book.

Children learning in school will do this in class.

Whether you choose a crown, hat, sunglasses or a facemask, we can't wait to see you parading your book on your head in school and online!

Children learning in school - if you want to wear a World Book Day costume on Thursday, please do - otherwise it's school uniform.
