

Year 3 Summer 1 – Islam

Key facts

- Shahada means to testify or bear witness in Arabic.
- It reads: "I bear witness that none deserves worship except God, and I bear witness that Muhammad is the messenger of God."
- It is the Muslim declaration of the belief in Allah and in Muhammad (peace be upon him) as his final Prophet.
- Shahada is considered one of the five pillars of Islam.
- Muhammad's first revelation took place in AD 610, during which the Islamic prophet, was visited by the angel Jibrīl, who revealed to him the beginnings of what would later become the Qur'an.

Shahada

Allah

Muhammad
(Peace be upon him)

Angel Jibrīl

Qur'an

Vocabulary

- Shahada
- Allah
- Muhammed (Peace be upon him)
- five Pillars
- revelation
- Angel Jibrīl
- Qur'an

We are thinking about:

What are the 5 pillars of Islam?

What is the Shahada and why is it important?

Do other religions have special sayings?