

Year 4 Autumn 2 Art – Painting: Landscapes

Key facts

- Landscape painting is also known as landscape art
- A landscape painting or drawing refers to an artwork whose primary focus is naturally scenery
- The artwork may include forest, rivers, mountains, valleys, cliffs etc.
- John Constable was an English landscape painter
- He lived from 1776 to 1837 and painted in the Romantic style
- Claude Monet was a French landscape painter. He is very famous for painting waterlilies
- He lived from 1840 to 1926

The Waterlily Pond – Claude Monet

Claude Monet

John Constable

Example of landscape painting – John Constable

Vocabulary

- landscape
- scene
- setting
- natural
- rural
- urban
- townscape
- seascape
- Impressionist
- imaginary
- realistic

When using watercolours...

- you can wet the paper and then add paint onto the wet area
- wet your brush and use the paint on the dry paper
- more water means the paint will be thinner and create more of a colourwash
- less water means the colour is bolder and stronger

