

Year 5 Autumn 1 Humanities – European Cities

Key facts

- Physical feature is something that is naturally created.
- Human feature is something that is built by humans.
- A country is a nation with its own government.
- A city is a large human settlement.
- A capital city is a city or town that functions as the seat of government and administrative centre of a country or region.
- A continent is one of several very large landmasses.
- Europe is the world's second smallest continent after Australia. Asia is the world's largest continent.
- The European continent houses 50 countries.
- The European continent is located in the northern hemisphere.
- The Volga River in Russia is Europe's longest river.
- Europe borders onto the Arctic Ocean, the Atlantic Ocean and the Mediterranean Sea.

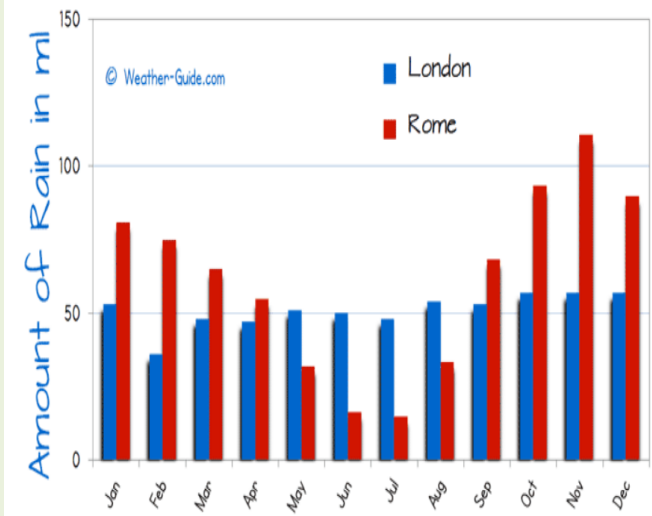

Vocabulary

- Europe
- Madrid
- Rome
- London
- Stockholm
- Oslo
- Berlin
- Moscow
- physical feature
- human feature
- mapping/climate

Weather pattern

Rome and London Rain Comparison

The monthly average amount of rain that falls on London compared to Rome

